

International Pole Sports Federation

IPSF Coach

Terms and Conditions

www.polesports.org

IPSF Coaches Membership for the competitive year of 2018/19 will expire on 31st October 2019.

Coaches should behave in a manner befitting a sporting coach. If a coach is found to be in breach of any IPSF rules or ethics their coaching status may be revoked.

Any coach found to be representing themselves as an IPSF coach without the correct qualifications will be in breach of the ethical code.

It is forbidden for coaches and athletes to talk to judges regarding all matters concerning scoring in any IPSF competition. All requests for feedback must be relayed to the head judge.

All coaches must maintain the highest level of professionalism throughout any IPSF competition and during all media interviews before/after.

All coaches must wear the team tracksuit. Please contact the competition organiser of the event where your athlete qualified for the World Pole Sports Championships. It is the coaches responsibility to pay for the tracksuit themselves.

Coaches must wear their identification at all time and will have access to all parts of the building in use for the competition including the stage area. Only coaches who are the same gender as their athlete may enter the changing rooms with them.

Coaches are permitted:

In the athletes holding area

In the changing rooms (if the same gender)

The sponsors area next to the stage to await the results with the athlete.

The above areas are restricted to everyone else.

All registered coaches must attend the athletes parade alongside their athletes.